Note: The above particulars have been prepared from the PTA record supplied by the school. Aadhaar numbers appearing in the source record have not been reproduced in this CBSE-facing document because they are not necessary for identifying PTA membership. Original records may be maintained securely by the school for verification, if required.

3. Functions of the PTA

To promote constructive cooperation between parents, teachers and school management. To discuss students' academic progress, attendance, discipline, health, safety and overall development. To provide a suitable forum for parents to communicate suggestions and concerns through proper channels. To support co-curricular, cultural, sports, health, awareness and student-development activities. To encourage regular parent participation in Parent-Teacher Meetings and academic interaction. To support measures for a safe, inclusive, child-friendly and respectful school environment. To assist the school in strengthening communication between home and school, without interfering with the academic and administrative authority of the Principal.

4. Meetings and Records

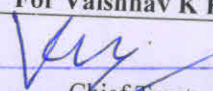

The PTA shall meet periodically and whenever necessary for matters concerning student welfare and school-parent coordination. Notice of meetings, attendance, agenda and minutes shall be maintained by the school.

Recommendations of the PTA shall be considered by the school management subject to applicable rules and the academic/administrative authority of the school.

PTA records shall be preserved as part of the school's official records and produced before the competent authority when required.

5. Declaration and Approval

We hereby certify that the above Parent Teacher Association has been constituted for KKGI School, Baroda Sadar, Post Mahuar, Tehsil Kiraoli, District Agra, Uttar Pradesh – 283122, and that the particulars stated above are based on the PTA record maintained by the school.
